

The Governor Wolf Historical Society's 2024 Holiday History Fest

December 7th – The 42nd Annual House Tour

Dec 7- 10 AM- 4 PM The 42nd Annual Historic House Tour- Booklets can be purchased - Mycalyn's Florist, Nazareth - Snow Goose Gallery, Bethlehem - Ace Hardware, Northampton- Seem's Antiques & Bath Drug, Bath. Booklets will be available on the GW campus museum at 9:00AM

December 7th & 8th (9-4) - "The Holiday History Fest"

3 historic Buildings filled with Juried Artisans and Craftsmen

Our 1800's ladies will offer you a free Christmas treat from that era!
Watch Hearth Cooking, Blacksmithing, Working Artists, Inlaid Wooden Boxes,
Basketry, Smoked Meats & Cheeses, Jellies, Jams, and Gluten Free Breads
Natural Soaps, Holiday Décor, Crafted Walking Sticks, & Toys,
Fiber arts, Spinning, Weaving, and Needle Arts. Try Bobbin Lace!
The 153rd Northampton Civil War winter camp,
Speak to a Northampton County Civil War collector and expert!
Learn about Early Firearms from an expert with a huge display from over 3 centuries.

Educators- Reduced admission with school identity

Visit where our 7th Governor became The Father of Public Education in PA

Scout troops, packs, and leaders – Arrive as a group in uniform – free admission!

Free Make-n-take Crafts - ages 3 - 93!

Have an amazing Lunch in The Monocacy Café.

6600 Jacksonville Road, Bath, PA 18014

Find us on Facebook

610-837-9015

govwolf.org

Partial Funding -Northampton Hotel Tax Grant

